Denise Henderson Assumes Immediate Past President Position

DULLES, VA—The Dulles Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) Chapter announced today that Denise Henderson, PHR, HR Manager with Oceana, Inc., has fulfilled her term as President for 2009 and has assumed her role as Immediate Past President of the Dulles SHRM Chapter for 2010. In her role at Oceana, Ms. Henderson manages the HR function of the largest international non-profit organization focused 100 percent on ocean conservation.

“Denise has worked diligently over the last year to prepare me for the role of President. She is passionate about HR, and continues to devote countless hours to serving our profession. I look forward to our continued successes in the Chapter,” Linda Caporaletti-Hoyt, President, Dulles SHRM.

After leaving the presidency, the Past President serves as the Immediate Past President for one year. In this role, Henderson will advise the President and other officers and the Board of Directors regarding past practices, general administration, and other matters to assist in effective operation of the chapter. This position is an active, voting member of the Board of Directors.

“It has been an honor to serve the chapter for the past several years. I look forward to working with Linda and the Board to achieve our 2010 goals,” Henderson says.

Concurrent with this appointment, Ms. Henderson holds the Technology Director position with the Virginia SHRM State Council, to which she was recently appointed for a three year term. She has previously served as the Dulles SHRM Chapter 2009 President, 2008 President Elect, and three years as the Communications Director. She has also volunteered on the Chapter’s Workforce Development, Discussion Group, and Diversity Workforce Best Practices committees, assisted with various professional seminars and workshops and is very active in the legislative area of the Chapter. She currently manages several online social networking groups, and has assisted in managing several websites for both profit and not-for-profit organizations. She is also very active in other volunteer community organizations.

About the Dulles SHRM:

The Dulles SHRM Chapter achieved the prestigious 2008 SHRM Superior Merit Chapter Award and was the only one of 11 Virginia Chapters to receive this honor. The Dulles Chapter is a 100 Percent Chapter where all members are required to maintain membership in the national organization in addition to programs providing information to human resource professionals. The Dulles Chapter is a Pinnacle Award winner and continues to be a Superior Merit Award Chapter.
